

Launching of the AKOFE website and the special health scheme for AKOFE Members

A small function was organized at the KOICA premises and the ceremony chief guest was CHO Kyu Chan, the Director of KOICA Sri Lanka office. AKOFE Ex. Co. members of current year organized/participated for the event followed by officials from Nawaloka hospitals, several media personnel from news papers were also present

AKOFE Website

To inform the AKOFE activities among the public (local and international) and its members as agreed by the Ex. Co. officials of the year 2014 the AKOFE web site was created and published at the minimum cost (website creation was free of charge and annual publishing cost was kept at minimum) .

Through launching the AKOFE website (www.akofe.lk) followed are to be expected.

- More active participation of AKOFE members for the benefit of Sri Lanka from the Korean experience gained
- A forum between the member ideas and interactive communications
- Familiarize the Sri Lanka society on AKOFE activities
- Communicate with international such Korean societies and share experience
- Widen the membership

Health scheme

New concessionary health scheme through Nawaloka Hospital has been launched by AKOFE for its members. This scheme is in effect from 26th of September 2014. With the new scheme members of AKOFE will gain multitude of benefits from health services offered by Nawaloka hospital. Among them are special discounts from room rates, lab testing facilities, Pharmaceuticals and free ambulance services in Colombo etc. All AKOFE members are covered with the scheme; in order to receive the benefits the member should carry a letter signed by the president of Association to authenticate the membership.

